

An Amish widow's quilt classes lead to beautiful life lessons.

From author Wanda E. Brunstetter

Fri., August 24

Blue Gate Theater-Shipshewana

Amish widow Emma Yoder's first quilt class brings the most unlikely people together—a young woman yearning for stability; a struggling couple at odds in their marriage; a widower hoping to find solace in finishing a quilt; a rough and tough biker doing some creative community service; and a preacher's wife looking for relaxation when parish problems mount. But as these beginning quilters learn to transform scraps of material into beauty, their fragmented lives begin to take new shape with the helping hands of each other and the healing hand of God.
